

You Will Find A Story There

V.1

You may think they don't say much
But if you look close enough
You will find a story there
It can make you stop and stare

Perhaps the windows or the door
Are the clues you're looking for
Maybe the carving of a leaf
Will take you back to ancient Greece

CHORUS

You will find new pleasures
In your powers to observe
And you may see some treasures
That we really should preserve

V.2

Perhaps you like the Gothic take
With ornaments that look like lace
How's about the Beaux Arts taste?
They're just like fancy wedding cakes

You may like Art Deco's mixture
King Kong climbed one in the picture!
Or find a Georgian townhouse fab
Pull up in your hansom cab!

CHORUS

V.3

Want to be an expert quick?
Name that style, it's your pick
Telling Dutch from Romanesque
Is a skill that does impress

If you like the story-side
Myths and monsters do abide
You don't need a 'Hogwarts School'
To find griffins that are cool

CHORUS
