

American Bible Society

This twelve story building was designed “to serve as the headquarters of the American Bible Society, which also rented space to nonprofit arts organizations. The exposed precast-concrete structure of the twelve-story building gave it a hulking presence. It was set back from Broadway, failing to fill its irregularly shaped site and leaving a rather miserly plaza along the avenue.” (NY 1960)

Block 1114 / Lot 9

1865 Broadway @ 61st Street

Built: 1963

Architect: JW Severinghaus for
Skidmore, Owens & Merrill